FIELDING and PATERSON: "Say! Could you tell me what happened?"

Rutherford Cup Still in Red Deer

The Edmonton High School Football Team made another determined effort on Saturday last to snatch the Rutherford Cup from the local boys, but, alas, for their hopes, they were beaten by the largest score of any of the cup games so far, though extra time had to be played to decide it.

The day was not very nice for football, as a nasty wind was blowing, but, shortly after 2.30 the game started before a poor crowd of spectators. Red Deer had slightly the advantage of the wind, which was nearly crosswise, but the ball was outside of the field a good part of the time and the play was rather ragged. The teams seemed pretty even, neither being able to score, though Red Deer had a good chance on a corner kicked by W. Krause. Part way through the first half J. Crozier, captain of the visitors, was seriously injured by a heavy check and had to be laid off, a man being also laid off the Red Deer team. Shortly before half time, by the aid of the wind and a peculiar twist on the ball, the Edmonton goalkeeper was deceived and the ball rolled through their goal, leaving the score at half time 1-0 in favor of the locals.

After half Edmonton had the little advantage the wind offered and pressed hard, but were generally well in their shooting, though Bob stopped one or two nice ones. Shortly before time would have given Red Deer the game, Perraton, for Edmonton, slipped by the backs and put one through that Bob could not reach, and the game was a tie. To decide who held the Cup fifteen minutes extra had to be played each way, this being one of the rules that go with it. In case of a tie after that the home team kept the silverware. For nearly ten minutes neither side had the advantage, though both were working hard, but then, after a rush of the Red Deer forwards, Carswell got an easy chance and put one through. This seemed to break the heart of the Edmonton boys, for Markle scored again for Red Deer a minute afterwards, and Carswell again a few minutes later, making the score 4-1 in favor of the home boys. The sides were changed again and the game lasted for fifteen more minutes, but the locals only defended and the visitors were never dangerous.

For the visitors Koller, at centre half, played the best game, and Crozier played a strong game until he was hurt. Perraton played a good on forward, and Thompson was strong, though erratic and worried by the roosters. For the locals all played well and some showed up better than at practices. Markle, Krause and Gibson were strong and Brown played a sterling game. Geissinger shows improvement on the right wing, and White, the new-to-the-game, will make a good left with practice. After the game the visitors were given their supper at the Olympia and departed by the evening train for Edmonton. We understand they have protested the game on the grounds that some of the Red Deer players were ineligible, but we do not think the protest can stand. The Edmonton team had four teachers, all strong players, while the locals only had one. The teams were, as far as we know: Red Deer—Hewson, C. Smith, Gibson, Evans, R. Smith, Brown, Krause, Carswell, White, Markle, Geissinger, Edmonton—English, Fuller, Koller, Hicks, Thompson, Crozier, Perraton, W. Schlaw, Carmichael, Jaffries and Love.

R. Gee refereed.

The locals may play the Normal School at Calgary on Thanksgiving Day.

In view of the fact that Edmonton had four teachers to Red Deer's one, and we understand three of them are married men, it seems a little out of place to be casting so many slurs on the Red Deer team, as has been done in the Edmonton papers and the Albertan of Calgary. Surely the Edmonton team did not expect to run up against a bunch of kids with the growing team that they brought down. Red Deer had one married man on the team, namely, A. R. Gibson, teacher. Every other player was a bona fide pupil of the Red Deer High School, and there were no ringers on the team. It is most cowardly for Calgary and Edmonton papers to publish such statements, and we hope they will have the fairness to publish this correction. That Red Deer has a High School football team to be proud of, is true, but it is a very easy matter to verify the untruthfulness of the Edmonton players' statements, and they are entitled to strong censure for making them, as a true sport will take his medicine and say nothing more about it. We believe there should be a rule that no teacher plays on the team. If such was the case we believe it would be better for all concerned, as city teams may have the advantage in this respect.

Horticultural Society Executive Meet.

A meeting of the executive of the Horticultural Society was held on Saturday afternoon last in the Board of Trade office. Those present were Messrs. Boyce, Allen, Carscallen, Beaumont and Peter Nelson.

The payment of accounts and prize money was authorized, and these will go out in a few days. The prizes totalled $15.75, and in addition three trophies were won.

Messrs. Carscallen and Davidson were appointed a committee to act with the Council to arrange for a lecture on city planning, which will be given under the auspices of the Society by C. Lionel Gibbs of Edmonton. Lectures illustrated by lantern slides will be given during the winter by L. M. Gotch, of Holman & Gotch, Architects, A. Mitchell, and others, on subjects of interest to the public.

Mr. A. R. Hill had very kindly donated to the Society some seeds from Ash, Maple and Lilac trees, which had been grown in Saskatchewan, and so were valuable because acclimatized. As the Town is thinking of establishing some plots for nurseries, the Secretary was instructed to hand these to the town gardener, as it was thought that they could be raised to best advantage by him.

The President and Secretary were authorized to hypothecate the grant which may be received from the Government, or to sign notes covering any advance that may be made by the bank, to enable them to pay their prizes and accounts.

Five First-Class Entertainments for the Cost of Two

The Fire Brigade have succeeded in securing from the Lyceum Bureau, Des Moines, Iowa, a series of five entertainments for this winter, the first of which is to be here Oct. 27th. These entertainments are all high class and the Firemen are confident that they have secured something that will please the patrons. They are selling season tickets, that is a ticket that entitles the holder to attend all five entertainments and have reserved seats for each. The prices are popular and a season reserved seat ticket can be bought for two dollars and a half. Of course the boys hope for a full house and a Liberal patronage, as that is their only chance of making a little. The Midland Concert Company (the first to perform) is a company of young ladies who come well recommended. Below is a copy from the Roland, Iowa, Record:

The Midland Concert Company entertained the largest audience of the season. Every member of the company was a star. The soprano pleased her audience from the beginning. She was at her best and entered into the spirit of her songs in a most pleasing manner. The reader likewise won repeated applause. The hit of the evening was the violinist. She held her audience spell bound only to break into loud applause when she finished her selections.

Since this company started out Miss Genova, a graduate of vocal soprano under the biggest Chicago teachers, has been added to the company. This addition makes this musical combination one of the best on the continent.

Presentation to Mr. and Mrs. George Wilton

A large number of the congregation of St. Luke's Episcopal church held a farewell reception to Mr. and Mrs. George Wilton Monday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Carswell, on the eve of their departure for their new home in Nanaimo, British Columbia, where Mr. Wilton will eventually enter into business for himself. The ladies of the W. A. furnished refreshments, and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by those present.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Wilton were presented with a very pretty silver tea service and Mr. Wilton with a gold headed cane. The presentation was made by Rev. C. W. G. Moore, rector of the church, and short addresses were made by J. A. Carswell, minister's warden, and Mayor R. B. Welliver.

Mr. Moore spoke of the high esteem in which Mr. Wilton was held by the congregation for his untiring efforts on behalf of the church as people's warden, and of the regret felt at his departure, and conveyed the best wishes of all for a long life of usefulness for himself and Mrs. Wilton in their new field of labor. Mr. Carswell, as Mr. Wilton's co-worker, expressed regret at his departure and testified to his splendid work on behalf of the church.

Mayor Welliver testified to Mr. Wilton's many good qualities as a citizen and regretted very much his departure from Red Deer, as he would ill afford to spare men of his stamp from among us. He wished both he and Mrs. Wilton long life and happiness in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilton and family left for their new home in British Columbia by the noon train yesterday.

GAETZ AVENUE NORTH.

Having returned from my trip I shall be pleased to receive bookings for Farm and other Sales by PUBLIC AUCTION, to which I intend devoting my time, and shall endeavour to so conduct my business that I may give satisfaction to both seller and buyer.

I am wanting listings of Improved Farm to send to prospective buyers in the old country where I have been staying, and faithfully upholding ALBERTA all the time, but the RED DEER DISTRICT in particular.

I shall be advertising later in leading English papers in time to catch those coming out in the spring, as in my own native country there are hundreds of Farmers who should be on Canadian soil, as they are paying in rent and taxes in 2 years more than enough to buy a good improved farm here and be free from in many cases an overbearing landlord, who should it come to his knowledge that a tenant had so far transgressed the law, as to shoot a hare or pheasant he would the same day receive notice to quit.

Thanking the old customers I have been able to serve and hoping to receive a share of patronage from any who are wanting business done in a straight business way I am at their service, at the above address.

Distance no object, size of Sale cannot be too large.

MR. MICHENER'S POSITION.

The Calgary Albertan, true to its reputation for willful misstatements, has put words in Mr. Michener's mouth, then proceeded to misrepresent his position. First in regard to our natural resources, Mr. Michener speaking in Calgary asked, "If it was reasonable to expect Mr. Borden to hand over our public domain to a government that did not believe in administering them?" Mr. Michener furthermore pointed out that the province had increased its indebtedness over 4,000,000 since Mr. Sifton took the reins of power a little over a year ago, and stated if we hoped to develop the resources of the province, and carry on a progressive administration, we must have greatly increased revenue which could only be brought about by the province administering her own lands and natural resources.

Mr. Michener then asked, how can the province hope to receive these resources? Answer—By putting into office a party that believes and has always believed in the provincial control of these resources. The Albertan has persistently tried to misrepresent Mr. Michener's position on the A. & G. W. question.

The Albertan says: "Mr. Michener fought the agreement as a bad one; now he wants to hand the money over to Mr. Clark." Not at all. Mr. Bennett and Mr. Michener opposed the deal as a bad one, but further opposed the confiscatory legislation, on the ground that this arbitrary if not illegal way of settling the question was still further bringing discredit to our province and launching the country in an expensive litigation and serious financial loss. Whereas the company at the time Mr. Sifton came to power was willing to reopen the agreement and make a satisfactory settlement with the government. Mr. Michener contends that a satisfactory settlement should have been made without litigation. The proposition of Mr. Michener was the ordinary business way of settling a question, of making the best of a bad bargain. Mr. Sifton's proposition was not even a legal way. Although it has plunged the province in most serious litigation, it is doubtful if a government can use arbitrary powers of confiscation, or, in other words, legalize theft. Already this litigation has been very costly, besides the legal expenses in connection therewith. The province stands to lose nearly $150,000 per year in interest, besides claims for damages of over $3,000,000 are preferred against the government. The question is, where will it all end? To say the least, the province has been plunged in a horrible, costly, prolonged suit, which might have all been settled in a plain business way in short order. Until Premier Sifton gets a mandate from the people he must not only assume the responsibility of the tangle he is now in, but must be also responsible, as leader of the liberal party in Alberta, for the whole disgraceful A. & G. W. deal.

ROBERT LAIRD BORDEN, COURAGEOUS, HONEST

The Toronto Globe, the strongest Liberal paper in Canada, says of Premier Borden:

Like Sir James Whitney in Ontario and Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the Dominion, Mr. Borden has earned his success by a long and tireless service in opposition, marked by discouragement, defeat, and sometimes humiliation. Twice he led his party to disaster at a general election, and each time he suffered the unpopularity that comes to an unsuccessful general. It has been no secret that he would long ago have cheerfully laid aside both the burden and the honor of leading the opposition, but as he was the best man available he was called upon to remain. Now that his hour of victory has come, no one will grudge him his triumph.

During his years of minority leadership Mr. Borden would have returned to the law, his chosen vocation in life. It was as a lawyer of the first rank, especially in constitutional matters, that he achieved his standing in his native province of Nova Scotia. His firm was at the front of the legal profession, and Mr. Borden was happiest when arguing before a judge of the superior court. He was not a fiery lawyer, and he has never been a popular orator. His style is logical and argumentative, rather than fervid or imaginative. His speeches are thoroughly prepared, and filled with the thought that comes of wide reading. Only now and again a story relieves the weight of his argument. As a campaigner, Mr. Borden, though never brilliant, has improved in recent years. His audiences are impressed by his sincerity and earnestness, as well as by his courage. His courage was notably shown in his western tour, when he told the grain growers he would continue to oppose reciprocity, even though he never became premier. Time has shown that he was a better interpreter of the spirit of the country than at the time he was thought to be.

Grand Pre, the scene of the explosion of the Acadia from Nova Scotia, was the birthplace of Mr. Borden, in 1854. Under the shadow of Blomidon, and with its ever-restless tides, it is a cradle of poetry and mysticism. In Mr. Borden the result of this environment takes the form of a personality of outward gentility and charm, but an inward self that is revealed to few. The future prime minister is a thorough gentleman, clear and straightforward, a fine companion, but withal reserved. A campaigner he adjusts himself with difficulty to the varying personalities of a day's companionship. On the campaign platform he repeats day after day much the same speech. Sometimes he is heckled, and this acts as a spur to his force and his brilliancy. The slumbering fire of a British ancestry rallies to the call of battle; a little badgering makes a fiery declamation of what would have been a monotonous essay.

As leader of a party in the house since 1901, Mr. Borden has been effective in two ways, as a speaker of power and destructive force on a great issue, and for his executive ability in getting work from his followers. He assigned different men to different lines of enquiry and study in criticism of the government, and aided and encouraged their individual efforts. This has strengthened the opposition's case and developed individual talent that the new premier will now find of much value in his cabinet.

The future premier, passing in his campaign as he raced through Nova Scotia the other day to greet his aged mother at Grand Pre, now feels the joy his success has brought to her before it was too late. His wife, the inspirer of his political hopes and his companion of his years in the wilderness, suddenly becomes the first lady in the land. The little-known, plodding minority leader emerges from a small room in the south-west corner of the parliamentary block at Ottawa, and becomes the exponent of the will and hope of a vigorous young nation. In a few weeks he will greet the Duke of Connaught, the King's uncle and future governor-general of Canada, and, better still, will write his speeches to parliament for him.

A CAMPAIGN BLUFF.

(Calgary Herald)
The Liberal press is pursuing its tactics of first erecting a bogey and then knocking it down. It tries to convince its readers that Mr. Michener has stated that Mr. Borden will give Alberta its natural resources if Alberta elects a Conservative government, but will not do so otherwise. This bogey being assumed, the Liberal press holds up its hands in horror and says: "What cross bribery, what a colossal bluff!" The joke is that neither in the Liberal speeches nor in any other place is there any record of his having made any such statement. It is assumed merely for political purposes, and is on a par with the statements attributed to Mr. Borden in the recent campaign which were entirely false and similar to the equally false statements made concerning Mr. M. S. McCarthy at the previous election.

At the same time let the electors of this province seriously consider the very point raised. It is obvious that if their natural resources are granted to these three provinces, there can and will be no discrimination between them. The Liberal press knows that as well as anyone else. But do the sane and sensible electors of Alberta really want their provincial natural resources thrown into the hands of Arthur L. Sifton? Can they trust him with such a proposition? Or would they not rather hope that the transfer of the resources to this province will be deferred until they have had time to remove him from office and place in power a government on whose honesty and competence they can depend? Mr. Sifton has been a flat failure up to date, and even his political honesty has been smirched by the method in which he took office. It is time that he and those that surround him were returned to private life. And it will be fortunate for Alberta if this can be done before the present aggregation has a chance to get its hands on the natural resources of this country.

Premier Sifton, in trying to remedy the awful financial chaos into which the province has been plunged, has only jumped from the frying pan into the fire. It is now confusion worse confounded. Not only is the A. & G. W. millions locked up and being devoured by lawyers from all parts of Canada but the province has borrowed millions more without any visible means of ever returning it. It takes a wise man to save money—any person can spend it. The province of Alberta is on the rocks, and bankruptcy is the only solution of the difficulty with Premier Sifton at the helm.

Lacombe Depot Blown Up

Flash Light Powder the Cause

On Thursday night, at Lacombe, a number of trunks were taken off the train going north at 7:30 o'clock.

Among the trunks was one owned by two men who had been taking photos in Red Deer. After the train had left the station the trunks were taken into the baggage room as usual. Taking one of the trunks off the truck, one of the baggagemen threw it on the floor. A deafening explosion occurred, completely shattering the baggage room and wrecking the main station.

ROOF BLOWN OFF.
The effect of the explosion was first in an upward direction, the roof being completely torn off. Then suddenly the walls fell down in an outward direction and the explosive, whatever it was, then struck through the floor and buried itself in the earth beneath.

It was dark when the accident happened and, a fire breaking out shortly afterwards, the town fire brigade had a busy time of it for a few minutes.

Had the accident happened a few minutes before, the loss of life might have been serious, as the train had just left the station shortly before the explosion occurred, and there were fully 50 people on the platform when the train arrived. E. G. MacLeod, whose legs were badly shattered, was taken to the town hospital, where all the local doctors did their best to save his life, but he died the next day.

Harry Nein and Henry Leine, the two travelling photographers who owned the trunk, were placed under arrest at the Lacombe Temperance hotel Friday morning as a result of the explosion at the station Thursday night, and taken to Edmonton, in charge of Sergeant Tucker, of the Royal North-West Mounted Police.

The men will be detained at the barracks of the Edmonton detachment until next Friday, when an inquest will be held over the remains of Edward MacLeod, the baggageman who was killed when the catastrophe occurred.

During the day Nein and Leine were the objects of a rigid examination, and the conclusion has been reached that the explosion was the result of the blowing up of a quantity of flashlight powders contained in the trunkful of supplies the men had checked to Lacombe, where they intended to do a certain amount of photographic work.

When examined by the officers, Nein and Leine said they had been sent out on the road by a Calgary photographer named Avelson, and that prior to leaving the studio in the southern city they had seen their employer mix a quantity of the flashlight powders, one of the ingredients of which is magnesium powder.

der. They did not know the exact amount that was prepared, but thought it was slightly in excess of one pound. The powder was packed with a quantity of plates, cameras and chemicals used in the printing and development of pictures, and the entire lot was placed in a small trunk and checked to Lacombe.

The duplicate baggage check, corresponding to the check found on the wrecked trunk, was found in the possession of the men.

No Bath in Twenty Years

Denver, Oct. 9.—"The first person whom I shall visit this morning," said the visiting nun, "is a woman who is 106 years old. She's really a living curiosity, she's aged, and yet so alive. Her son, who is her only child, and who takes entire care of her, sent for me the other day to come and see her."

"Would you like to have a nurse come and care for you every day," I asked.

"Diana care," she replied in a broad brogue. "But she must not be highdown. That I can't abide."

"Well, wouldn't you like a nice bath?"

"Gon on wid yese, gur-l. I've had no bath in these twenty years, and I'm not meaning to kill myself now."

NORTH RED DEER

Great Progress in This Part of The Community

The Advocate last week devoted considerable space to a review of the progress of North Red Deer, which we consider well worth reproducing.

Most of this progress has been due to that enthusiast for North Red Deer, Bro. Bawthelmer, to the millmen and to the French-speaking residents, so far as the buildings are concerned, while an energetic council composed of Messrs. Webb, Brennan and W. Bawthelmer, with Mr. McCaskill as secretary-treasurer, has worked wonders in transforming the commons, paths and trails of 1910. Not less than 7500 feet—some and a half of solid 6 foot plank walk has been laid this summer by Messrs. Hollis, the contractors. This extends from the bridge over the river to the railway crossing, then from the railway crossing to the Freytag tannery on the Burnt Lake road, and then out Main Street. Another line of walk runs north on Balsam Ave. to the Convent hill then west along Clive Street to cottages nestling below the new road on the side hill, thence north on Oak Street to the boundary. These are trestled and railed where necessary, making a complete job. Fully $1500 has been spent in grading the streets and half a dozen or more streets and avenues have been opened up. Councilor Brennan thinks they can show Fort McMurray pointers. The Council are asking for the opening of a level railway crossing on Cherry Street, about the middle of the village, for two reasons: first, that the children of the west end might get across handsomely to the projected public school, north of the track, and second, that delivery rigs and other drivers having business in the west end on this side of the track shall not have to go back to the present railway crossing in order to get over to the west end on the north side of the track. The residents have petitioned for the establishment of a post office in the town to accommodate the growing population and business.

THE COMPLETE HOME FURNISHERS

51, First Street South Red Deer, Alta.

Bawthelmer & Sons have just built a substantial one story and basement two store brick block on Balsam Ave., which Mr. Art. Dunstan will hand over to the partners in a day or two. All the North Red Deer people tell you that it is for a departmental store, and the name of a prominent and successful old timer now in the general store line in Red Deer is mentioned as intending to have a branch establishment across the river: whether Bawthelmer & Sons butcher shop is to form part of the camp of their own, they propose to contract for three more camps and are looking forward to putting 12 to 15 million feet through the mill next season. How have any idea of the extent of the industry being carried on here by President Menzies, Mr. Hey, Mr. Fallows, Mr. McCaskill and the heads of other departments of this big industry.

The Freytag Co.'s tannery, the Imperial Oil Co.'s terminal warehouse, Mr. Henry's nursery over the hill, are other mercantile enterprises of the village.

Crowning the hill to the northwest are three fine two story residences completed this summer and owned by Mr. Fallows, Mr. Meredith and Mr. Farnell, who has a valuable one and a half acre property there. Mr. Fallows house is a very spacious and imposing residence, containing eleven rooms, with verandah, balcony, and modern finishings. An Italian feature, a polished hand rail, put in by Mr. Mackenzie after Dr. Grant's plans. All three homes command magnificent views of the river valley.

The Holy Land

Cross Will Replace Crescent

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 12.—That Italy will no longer make peace with Turkey until it has wrested Jerusalem and the Holy Land from Moslem sovereignty, and presented it to the pope as a papal state, is the substance of an Italian newspaper of Chicago, edited by Oscar Durante.

Several columns of the first page of the paper which was issued today are devoted to editorial and news items, the burden of which is that Italy will demand the cessation of Jerusalem and the Holy Land as indemnification for the expenses incurred in the war with Turkey over Tripoli; that the Holy Land will be presented to the pope, thus restoring to him temporal power; that this will bring about a reconciliation between the Vatican and the quinquennial, bringing to an end the self-imposed retirement of the Holy Father since the papal states in Italy were seized by the Italian government, and that for the first time since the days of the crusades the cross will replace the crescent in the land most sacred to those professing the Christian religion.

The news items upon which the article is based come as a special cablegram from a correspondent who for a year is said to have had a specially good source of information in the Vatican. Under the heading "Italy is to Redeem the Holy Land," the article says: "It will make a gift of it to the head of Christendom, a protector of Tripoli and an offer of indemnity no longer will satisfy Italy, but complete annexation and reimbursement of the war expenses incurred up to the present will be demanded; and in addition it will be insisted that the Porte give security against atrocities which if they occur now will not remain unpunished as did those in Armenia and Albania."

Following this appears a telegram from Autaro Celi, L'Italian's correspondent at Rome, which reads as follows: "Rome, Oct. 11.—I am in a position to communicate a very important fact, learned through a personage in Vatican diplomacy. Besides conquering Tripoli, Italy also is planning to take possession of the city of Jerusalem and the Holy Land, and to present it to the Holy See to be held under protection of Italy. Italy will confine its military action to the coast of Africa as long as the Turks respect the rights of Italians living on Turkish soil; but should the government of Turkey foment massacres or show its inability to prevent them, then our fleet will enlarge its sphere of action, and will occupy the islands of Mytilene and Jaffa and Jerusalem."

Marrienne

This district still advances and a sign of vigorous life was shown in the reopening of the Sunday School on the 8th inst. Things went off successfully, there being a very satisfactory attendance, and it is to be hoped that people will rally round and help on this work. Remember the children.

Make Hair Grow

Gaetz-Cornett Drug & Book Co. have an invigorator that will grow hair or money back.

The time to take care of your hair is when you have hair to take care of.

If your hair is getting thin, gradually falling out, it cannot be long before the spot appears.

The greatest remedy to stop the hair from falling is SALVIA, the Great American Hair Grower, first discovered in England. SALVIA furnishes nourishment to the hair roots and acts so quickly that people are amazed.

And remember, it destroys the Dandruff germ, the little pest that saps the life that should go to the hair from the roots.

SALVIA is sold by Gaetz-Cornett Drug & Book Co. under a positive guarantee to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in ten days, or money back. A large bottle costs 50c. The word "SALVIA" (Latin for sage) is on every bottle.

Town Council

The regular meeting of the Town Council was held Thursday evening last, with Mayor Walter C. Carls in the chair and Councillors Galbraith, Carscadden and Malcolm in attendance.

CORRESPONDENCE.

There was no important correspondence outside a few enquiries with regard to debentures.

COMMISSIONERS' REPORT.

The Commissioners brought in the following report:
We have instructed the police to enforce the law against shooting within the town limits, and to prosecute all offenders caught.
At the request of the building committee of the Presbyterian Ladies' College, we installed their water and sewer connections in their basement. The cost will be paid by them.
C. D. Couder applied for permission to operate a peanut stand on the streets of the town. We refused permission.
We are having the boulevards on the streets recently laid out cleaned up and have instructed gardener Halstead to have them prepared immediately, ready for seeding early in the spring. The space between the walk and the property line will be left until spring except in cases where it is necessary to do some work to protect adjacent property.
The building returns for this year are as follows: January, $900.00; February, $315.00; March, $600.00; April, $510.00; May, $106.00; June, $20,340.00; July, $9,300.00; August, $16,775.00; September, $17,250.00; October, 10 days, $4,500.00; Total, $219,360.00. Adding to this amount the value of the buildings erected outside the town limits, for which permits are not required, the value of buildings done in Red Deer this year will be over $300,000.00.

We have received advice from J. B. Clarke, K.C., that he has approved of all the by-laws submitted to him. We have not yet received his opinions on them nor certificates of approval. We have written for these, and have also sent him the two by-laws recently passed for examination. If they are approved without delay we will call for tenders for the whole lot of debentures.

A building permit was issued for alteration of store for Royal Theatre after alterations from the first work had been completed and Fire Chief Meeres has approved of the building from a fire protection standpoint.

We have had several ratcatchers ask for grades on city streets for building purposes and have been unable to furnish them. It appears to be necessary to have all street grades established as soon as possible. We ask your authority to have these laid out at once.

We have discussed with the Western General Electric Co. the question of so many of the street lights being unit at nights. Their manager promises to have any complaints in future attended to promptly. He also agreed to have the guy wire at the entrance to the A. C. R. wagon road removed from the centre of the road.

All the street lights ordered in June have now been installed, with one exception, and that will be placed in a few days.

Construction work has been progressing favorably since last meeting.

WATERMAINS.

Extensions have been laid on East Ave. 1st St. N.E. and on other week will about complete 1st Ave. S.W. and 2nd Ave. S.E. We will then start all available men to work on the extension around the hill to the East of Town, and with favorable weather may be able to complete it this fall.

SEPTIC TANK.

The excavation for this has been completed, all pipes laid ready to connect with the sewer when tank is completed, and concrete work is now in progress. The surplus earth from the excavation has been carried out towards the river to enlarge the area required later for the filtration beds.

CEMENT WALKS.

The contractors have about completed their contract. The engineer required them to relay some defective work. They will have to clean up the streets where they were working. This week should finish all their work.

PLANK WALKS.

We have had men working for some days picking and sorting planks for these and will commence laying some in a few days. We regret that, owing to the scarcity of labor, and the great quantity of other construction work undertaken this summer, we could not have these laid sooner. We considered it more important to finish some of the other work so that the streets can be put into good condition before winter.

STREET GRADING.

We have been hampered in doing as much as we wished of this work on account of so much other construction work going on on the streets. We purpose having the streets put in good condition before winter, and to grade as many of the main streets as possible, where they have been brought to grade. What work we are doing is of a permanent character.

WATER AND SEWER CONNECTIONS.

We have just about caught up with this work. All applications will be attended to before winter. We have also installed most of the necessary catch basins.

WE HAVE INSTRUCTED THE POLICE TO PROSECUTE ANY PERSON CAUGHT DRIVING OR RIDING OVER ANY OF THE CEMENT WALKS, CURBS OR BOULEVARDS.

We have discussed with Mr. Miles the extension of the watermains around the hill to the east of town, and we submit his report thereon. We have gone over the ground and believe that his suggested change will save the town some money, and besides serve that district much better. We recommend that we be authorized to have the change made, and the main installed according to the amended plan.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Councillor Galbraith asked how much of an overdraft the Town had at the present time.

Commissioner Stephenson said there was an overdraft of about $50,000 at the Bank at the present time, but we had to meet that over $60,000 in debentures to sell at once.

G. W. Smith addressed the Council with regard to the taxes asked by the town from the Hospital Board. He showed that a considerable sum was asked from the Hospital Board and asked that this amount be remitted to the Board, as there was no institution move deserving of consideration than the hospital. He also drew attention to the very bad state of Kingsmill Avenue down to the railway crossing the past summer. The road was almost impassable for months, and it should be kept in some state of repair.

The Mayor said he would promise that the question of this piece of road would be looked into by the town, and would not doubt be repaired. He would, however, let Mr. Smith keep a day or so while action the Commissioners took in the matter.

With regard to the hospital taxes it seemed to be the general opinion that the taxes due by the hospital should be remitted, and the following motion was passed unanimously.

Moved by Councillor Carscadden, seconded by Councillor Galbraith, that the taxes of the hospital be remitted and that the Secretary-Treasurer be authorized to issue his cheque to the town to cover the amount of these taxes.

The Commissioners remarked that it would only take a small sum to repair piece of road mentioned by Mr. Smith, and the Council thought it wise to have the work done.

Some discussion took place regarding a hand stand for the band, but owing to the lateness of the season it was not thought advisable to build a hand stand and this fall.

Council adjourned.

R. Baker of the C.P.R. his passage and asked him several questions regarding the time between here and Ottawa and the details of the route. Col. Lowther, military secretary to his royal highness, was a very busy man. He was not too busy, however, to give a short audience to the newspapermen who had come aboard.

"No," Col. Lowther said, when asked if the duke would say a word of greeting to the Canadian people through the newspapermen, "Royalty never give interviews. He is a quiet willing, however, to talk about the trip across. We had only one day's layover, and 'otherwise the trip was delightful'."

DINNER ON SHIP.

The duke invited Sir Charles and Lady Fitzpatrick, Colonel Sherwood, Colonel Sladden, and one or two others to dinner with him aboard the ship. At 11 o'clock Premier Borden arrived in Quebec with members of his cabinet. They went to Chateau Frontenac, where an impromptu reception was held in the lobby. Everything is in readiness for the swearing in and reception today. The city is full of prominent people from all over the Dominion.

Quebec is in gala attire, the stores, the stations and the wharves being covered with bunting. The city hall has been especially decorated with colored lights, and the members of the ancient capital presents an appearance worthy of the momentous occasion.

There was a well defined rumor to the effect that Earl Grey had been with the Duke of Connaught on board the Empress of Britain. It is stated, however, that the greatest secrecy was maintained with regard to the matter and that the room in which the meeting took place was under a strong guard, as was also the approaches of the ship.

Bad Stomach

Many in Red Deer are Being Thoroughly Purified by Miona, the Guaranteed Cure for Indigestion.

People of Red Deer who suffer from dyspepsia and other stomach troubles are getting tired of taking preparations containing pepsin, because pepsin simply relieves; it never cures.

And remember, pepsin only digests animal food; it has no effect on starchy food, such as potatoes, rice, bread, etc.

Mio-na cleanses and purifies the stomach and bowels, and tones up and puts energy into stomach walls, so that they properly mix the food with the natural digestive juices of the stomach.

Mio-na tablets quickly arouse the stomach from its inaction, and in a few days it is able to do its work easily and without exertion. There will be no more sour stomach, fermentation of food, dizziness, sick headache, belching of gas, or foul breath.

Mio-na only costs 50 cents a large box, and is guaranteed by Gaetz, Cornett Drug & Book Co. to cure dyspepsia, sea or car sickness, vomiting of pregnancy, and stomach sickness resulting from over-indulgence of the night before, or money back.

Reports come from the coast that Mr. and Mrs. E. Widen are enjoying the atmosphere of B.C. very much. Owing to Mrs. Widen's health, Mr. Widen was compelled to give up business at Blackfalds. T. H. Magee, formerly of Smith & Gaetz' tinware department, taking over the business.

It is a shame a large town like Red Deer should be without a skating rink. All the other towns along the line have good skating rinks, and Lacombe is this year putting up a new $4,000 rink. It is time the citizens of Red Deer woke up to the fact that they are very much behind the times in some things.

At a meeting of the congregation of St. Luke's church, Wednesday evening last, A. G. Ayres was elected people's warden, to take the place of Geo. Wilton, who has removed to the coast. The election of delegates to the Synod meeting at Calgary in November resulted in Fred Ray and J. A. Carswell being elected delegates.

The young ladies of the Alexandra Club desire to thank all those who assisted in any way with the lawn party held at Mrs. MacGregor's residence recently. They wish especially to mention the Band, Hewson & Son, E. G. Johns & Co., Best Bros., T. A. Gaetz and others. They were enabled by this assistance to place quite a few dollars in the bank for charitable work, which is their sole aim and object.

The Advocate says the price of hogs is likely to drop, as one cent a pound higher than Winnipeg is paid here. Instead of a drop the U. F. A. were paying 9 1/2 cents last week, a quarter of a cent a pound higher price than formerly. Later—we understand the U. F. A. are offering 9 1/2 cents this week, while they are paying half a cent a pound less than last week in Winnipeg. Now what do you think of that?

Ten cars of cattle and two cars of hogs were shipped out of Red Deer last week. J. F. Gaetz shipped seven cars of cattle for F. Burns, Forrester & McDonald shipped three cars of cattle and one of hogs, and the U. F. A. Co-operative Association shipped one of hogs. Nine and a quarter cents were paid for hogs, and the U. F. A. are looking for another shipment of hogs, for which they can pay from 9 1/2 to 9 3/4 cents. For the cattle buyers paid from 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 cents with 5 per cent. shrinkage.

Constable Anderson summoned a man named Hollis before Justice Wallace last week on a charge of pointing a gun at a man across the river and using threatening language. He was fined $10 and costs and bound over to keep the peace. Under the circumstances he got off very easy, as there are other complications that make his case a bad one. The same day Justice Wallace had before him eight vagrants and drunks, who were all duly fined the usual fine and costs of court. Peace and order will be maintained in Red Deer at any cost.

Ladies, take notice that there will be a great demonstration of Tuxedo goods all this week at N. Murphy & Co's. store, and we hope you will please accept this as a special invitation to visit the store any day and sample the goods being demonstrated by Miss Goff, an expert in this line. Miss Goff will be glad to give information on the preparation of all Tuxedo goods. Drop in and enjoy a nice cup of hot coffee.

Capt. Cottingham, De Wardo Babcock and Norman Laxton, of Banff, spent last week out east shooting geese. They had a splendid time and bagged about one hundred and sixty choice birds. They placed their cold storage at Stettler, and then the fun began. About a hundred people sent down word that they were to have a goose. Of course, the man in charge handed them out. The Captain happened to step out the door and spied the row of people standing out the geese. He saw that there was a fire and the row of men were handing along buckets of water. When he drew close they caught sight of him and dashed away with the geese, and the Captain was left in sorrow alone. He was therefore only able to bring some sixty geese home with him, most of which Mr. Laxton claimed as his share of the bag. So only a few found their way to Red Deer. De Wardo says next time he goes shooting geese he will watch the cold storage plant with a shot gun.

Dr. Geo. S. Weger and Mrs. Weger, of Delphos, Ohio, were visitors at the publicity office yesterday. Dr. Weger is visiting out the line, a party of ten to twelve Ohio farmers and others who are coming to settle in Alberta or Saskatchewan. He was given literature and information on the town and district and left the names of the party with the Commissioner. He will stop at Red Deer again early next week and spend some time looking over the district. The Dr. said that a number of the party had been reading of the Canadian West for several years, and that the glowing reports brought back by the Ohio Editors had again enthused them, and they decided to at once take steps to come. They are farming in Ohio on land that sells at $125 to $150 per acre and which yields an average of only 15 bushels per acre of wheat. They grow mostly corn now, and figure they can raise corn-fed hogs at a profit at 5 1/2 per pound. The high prices current, as well as the big yields, were attracting them.

Springvale Notes

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gray returned on Saturday from a trip to Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, London, N.S., spent a recent week end visiting Mr. Speakman of Horn Hill and Mrs. Bowen of Springvale.

Mr. Smith is one of the up-to-date farmers of N.S. and was delighted with his trip through this part.

The ladies of the Methodist church intend to hold their annual supper on Friday evening, Oct. 27, and on the following Sabbath Rev. F. E. Davies, of Bowden, will preach at both morning and evening services.

Mr. James Gummow has two large stacks of timothy which show the power of this country to recover from a disaster. On June 22nd the hay was cut to the ground by the hail. About the 2nd week in Sept. Mr. Gummow cut over 2 tons of No. 1 hay to the acre.

The grain is pretty well all cut in this vicinity and the men are busy stacking. Mr. W. E. Corning is cutting the second crop of timothy this year and has a fair crop. Not too bad for our short season.

Mrs. Halgren, who met with a serious dislocation of the shoulder some time ago, we are glad to note is able to be around again.
